OUR PAST

As I sit in my laboratory wondering if the newest invention of the Atomic World, the time machine, really works, I think to myself, "Well, why not try it?" So, as the experiment begins, the time machine goes back to the year 1946.

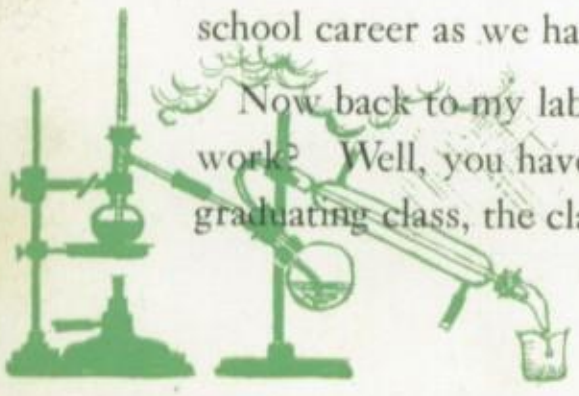
In September of that year a group of eager, ambitious freshman entered Burlington High School. No longer were we children, but we were on the long road that leads to adulthood. We started out on the road by electing Bill Moore, president; Carol Stuckey, vice-president; Betty Thompson, secretary; and Buell Moser, treasurer. Our year was made sad by the death of our beloved classmate, Tut Kemp. But time slipped quickly by and soon we were on a much awaited vacation.

The following September we returned with our role as "mighty sophomores." Under the guidance of Mr. C. C. Linnemann, our principal, and the help of our officers, Bobby Ellington, Bobby Glenn, Ann Cobb and Hugh Barrett, we made it a great year. Biology, Latin, English and Algebra were our big subjects, and how we labored over them! All those who struggled through Latin were uncertain about the future of Julius Caesar and sometimes their own. Therefore it was with much relief that we bade farewell to B. H. S. and said "hello" to the old swimming hole.

The summer whisked by and we came back to the halls in which, by now, we felt at home. A big task rested upon us, so we chose the officers that were most capable of pulling us through. They were Buell Moser, Bill Hockaday, Grady Beck and Garland Tickle. The class felt proud as different members were elected to the Honor Society, Y-Teen and Key Club. This year our football team under the leadership of our new coach, Mr. Stan Huffman, won the Western Class A A Championship. Miss Betsy Hellen, our adviser, proved to be "just wonderful" in helping with our most important project, the Junior-Senior Prom. Thus all missions completed, we ended our best year thus far with memories of lessons, games and, yes, that's right—that never-to-be forgotten Junior-Senior Prom.

Seniors! at last! It was a long hard road. Was it worth it? You can bet your life it was! Getting ready for the best year yet, we elected our officers—Grady Beck, John Smith, Ann Abercrombie and Joyce Clemmer. Other members of the class were appointed to various jobs: Frankie Strader, Editor-in-Chief of the Doe-Wah-Jack; Hunter Strader, Editor of the Barker; and Bobby Ellington, President of the Student Body. With "Great Expectations" we entered our classes only to be floored by term papers and contracts. Again our football team made history by being the Western Class AA Champions. Many individuals on the team also won honors. We were realizing at last our name of "respected seniors." Then came the thing for which we had worked for 12 years, the long awaited diploma.

As I look back over these years I think we have truly followed our motto "to aim high but reach higher." Due to the ideals implanted within us by our school, we are better prepared to help smooth the troubles of the world so that children of succeeding generations may enjoy as wonderful a high school career as we have had.



Now back to my laboratory and the Atomic World. Is it really true? Does the time machine really work? Well, you have seen me go back with it to Burlington High School and tell of the deeds of my graduating class, the class of '50.

Historian.

PEARLS AND PEBBLES

Those who expect too much of their friendship have few friends.

Learning is the foliage of the tree, knowledge is the fruit.

Few men travel over the road to success without an occasional puncture.

Reading is to the mind what exercise is to the body.

Ideas are peculiar things; they won't work unless you do.

As we grow better we meet better people.

A Glance Into The Future

. . . and now, just as the BHS graduating class of 1950 makes its emergence, headlines read: "ERA OF MECHANICAL BRAINS JUST BEGINNING"—What a tough break—twelve whole years wasted!

But gee, there's no time to grieve. This old world is revolving at such a fast technological (whatever that is!) rate of speed, I must hurry and write this prophecy before some scientist comes forth with the fact that all reading matter is as passé as Covered Wagons. Atomic power, having been discovered, can send thoughts, ideas and emotions to the mind by vibrations on the "brain can" or through the pores of the skin.

My radio wrist watch tells me to turn my purse-size television set on to see each member of the class televised as they will be several years from now. . . .

The discoverer of this 8th wonder of the world, the televisor that forsees the future, is Raymond Trollinger, who accumulated his knowledge of science at BHS. The radion station (WBHS) owners are Joe Crutchfield and Bill Hockaday. The announcer, a perfect television model is "Luigi" B. Yates.

These scenes are taken from life, in fields ranging from science to entertainment. The first scene shows that "Johnson Rocket." Neil, the inventor, is giving final instructions to Mack Smith, who is supposed to land on Mars from the thing and send a message to us within an hour.

Scientists John Smith and John Loy, having discovered the featherless chicken, have developed a pig with an extra rib on each side . . . now there are two extra pork chops on every meat counter!

—Don't miss this—something new being televised—Chief Surgeon Dr. Robert Ellington is performing an operation. His brave assistants are Doctors Jerry Moff, John DeLoatch, Tommy Davis and Thomas Lindsey and Nurses Joyce Clemmer, Wanda Suggs, Patsy Hiatt, Dot Tingen, Betty Odom, Frances Jones, and Mary Gray. These doctors and nurses are removing a mouse trap from the hand of Buddy Love who had this accident while removing bus fare from the pocket of Richard Qualls.

The popular "Tooth Clinic," patronized by patients the world over, is located on Broadway near the big neon tooth sign. Dentists are H. V. Murray, Bob Glenn, Bill Patty, Bill Layton, Tom McCann, Bob Martin, and Kenneth Thompson—"The Painless Six."

A news flash interrupts the program . . . final plans for the National Powder Puff Bowl football game, composed of all-girl stars—Alice Cole, Nancy Murray, Ruth Sharpe, Delores Robertson, Sarah Miles, Shirley Baldwin, Lora Kinsinger, Robyna Weadon, Nadine Fowler, Doreen Davis, Beba Hangelia, and Allene Reavis with Jewel Beauford as captain of this great team, is "Out to win either by touchdowns, hair pulling or nail scratching."

Those happy hillbillies—The Dixieland Play Boys—are next. Vic Sarratt Gene Hall, Ronnie Crawford and Bob Thompson are playing the banjos; Max Sharpe, Boyd Black and A. H. Patterson, and Melvin Conklin, Winston Umberger and Maynard Ellington are the fiddlers. The star, Garland Tickle, sings with those humming birds, Betty Rudd, Dot Barrett and Betsy Patterson with Mary Frances Sharp, pianist.

Another noted entertainer, George Crosby Fidler, is being rushed to Radio City with the aid of secret service police and his manager, Rick Wrightenberry. Among his admirers are Betty Daves, Joyce Quinlin, Margaret Mebane, Nancy Boyd, Evelyn Brown, Betty Sue Fitch, Katherine Morton, Betty Gilmore, Catherine Newlin.

Frankie Strader, talented organist, returned from studying abroad, is seen with the leading lady of opera, Ann Bevan. Dot and Doris Wagoner accompany her at the twin pianos.

Chief Opera House Doorman is Mack Baker. The McDaniel girls, Lillian and Frances, are selling tickets. Other staff members are: Bill Gurganious, Peggy Troxler, Lonnie Roberson, Frances Smith, Betty Marshall, Jimmy Driver, Hilda Love, Harold Hughes, Gilbert Hodge, Jean Isley, Darrell Mansfield, Wilton Pattishall, Jeanna Sharpe, Bill Catoe, Bob Reniger and Fannie Ida Sutton.

The Queen of America is now approaching her throne—"Miss America"—the famous model, Carolyn Holt. Her attendants are Jean Marion and Ann Abercrombie. The queen's court includes Jeanette Snyder, Edwin Chapman, Joanne Tutterow, Gene Walker, Diana Zachary, Ernest Isley, Jennie Shaw and Pete Sykes.

Among the celebrities attending the world premier "Cinderella" starring Theresa Norris and Buell Moser are those chewing gum pests that sat by me in Physics: Fred Matthews and Pat Sellars, now head coaches at Notre Dame.

I see Judge M. DeWeese sitting behind that large desk in the City Court Room where the gangster gang—the "Big Bad B's," are being tried. King "B," Bobby Harris was caught with a loaded water gun. His Co-working "B's" are Bill Lorimer, Bill Mitchell, Bob Lester, Bob McAdams, Bill Wheeley, Bill Blackwell, Bob Keyser, Bill Turner and Bob Perry. Each one was severely punished, having to write a hundred times, "I am a bad boy."

The great Shang Marshall is fighting a 12 ring bout with Earl Phillips tonight at the armory . . . Poor Earl! Waiting for the fight to begin are, Christine Miles, Sara Murr, Camilla Holt, Rachel Harris, Louise Simmons, Edith Price, Willie Clark, Peggy Campbell, and Barbara Suggs.

Hunter Strader, Editor of the nationally known magazine: "Know Nothing, See Nothing, Hear Nothing," is hard at work. Co-editors are: Dot Prickett, Barbara Dabbs and Pat Isley. Other editors are Jean Bradley, Loretta Howe, Gene Jenkins, Coy Conklin, Clem Powell, Norman Owens, Gary Neely and Fred Michaels.

Acme Drug Store, easily recognized by B'towners, is now operated by Lewis Blakey, Harold Horne and Ed Ihrie. Charles Leonard and Pete Jones are proving to the world they are the best "soda jerkers" to be found anywhere. Marvin Moss and Jeanette Coleman are sampling an Acme special. Others in the drugstore are Bill Bayliff, Peggy McPherson, Richard Bailey, Sara Nicholson, David Henderson, Betty Conklin, John Shoe, Teddy Martin, Betty Crenshaw, Harold Thompson, and Hazel Way.

Moore's Department Store is a "dream" come true. Big Boss Bill's ambition is a reality. The well known clerks are: Joanne Blanchard, Vera Baulding, George Hucks, Evelyn Stanfield, Bob Richmond and Evie Dowd. In the office, the well-trained typists are Joan Darling, Wanda Dickens, Frances Gatlin, Marion Maness and Geraldine Harris.

The last scene is a circus owned and operated by a fellow BHSer, Joe Freeman. There's quite a crowd as we enter the tent, and who should be heard but Grady Beck foretelling the wonders within.

The main attraction is "Popeye" Barrett in person. (Few recognize him as Hugh Barrett!) As usual, he is attracting the attention of all the ladies. Always a mystery how it happened! Bright lights are focused on more exciting shows—"the Little Man" Tommy himself, now 6 ft. 4 in. Tall, "The Girl of Wood" (Nancy), "The Man of Stone" (Jack), "The Horne Curiosity" (Barbara), "The Strange Man" (Charles), "The Human Herron" (Hilda), "The Wingless Wrenn" (Nellie) and "The Long Wonder" (Pat). The Neon signs are flashing—"Gay Fifties Revue," featuring Dunnie Carlyle, Mary Ella Wheeler, Lola Hillard, Betty Thompson, and Carol Stucky. Bennie Barker is heard yelling, "Come one, come all—your best chance to see the gayest fifties on earth!"

. . . Flash—Flash . . . News from Mars! is Mack safely there? Is Neil's invention a real success?? The world awaits the message from Mack . . .flash—flash—The message is . . . "Baby, it's cold up here!"

That's all . . . that's enuff!!

Class Poem

Tis closing time and high school ends for me,
They say the best in life is yet to be
And yet I view the past through falling tears,
As thoughts begin to search back through the years
While my Alma Mater in the twilight stands,
Like a lonely beggar—stretching forth her hands.

My thoughts now wander down the halls, lonely and bare,
While all my dreams are of what once was there
And even on my graduation day,
I pause awhile to meditate and pray
That all our school's aims we won't forget,
And that we'll strive to reach each goal we've set.

And so upon our own Commencement Day,
I view the road that leads us all away.
We've come to the parting of our road,
And each must take his separate load.
So at this parting we give a sigh,
For we are the Seniors of Burlington High.

JEWEL BEAUFORD

Class Song

There's A School In Our Memory
(To the tune of "A Tree in the Meadow.")

There's a school in our memory
That will always be near;
The times we spent in work and play,
The friendships that were dear.

We will always keep before us
The challenge, ringing clear,
To solve life's problems, meet the tests
Through many a coming year.

When farther on the road of life,
We'll still be loving thee.
We'll sing thy praises, loud and long,
Through all eternity.

By that school in our memory
Our thoughts will always lie;
And where'er we go, we'll always know
We'll love you 'till we die.

OUR PRINCIPAL SPEAKS:

Fellow graduates, we entered Burlington High School four years ago together. The journey has been long—and so short. It has been my pleasure to guide your progress as eager freshmen, as wise sophomores, as struggling juniors, and now as seniors. You are to be commended for reaching your goal—high school graduation. I wish for you health, happiness and success. May you carry with you pleasant memories of work and pleasure, victories and defeats and the sure feeling of success at B. H. S. May you ever be loyal and true sons and daughters of Burlington High School. auf Wiedersehen.

Margie,
It has been sweet being in your class. Lots of luck always. As ever Love Betty Lou

Marshals

The marshals, chosen from the Junior class, take part in all Senior activities and help whenever needed. This year's marshals are: First row: B. Stafford, Bonds, Rich, Gilmore, Chief; Dismuke, A. Stafford. Second row: Perry, Latta, Aldridge, Jeffries, Lewis.

Mascots

The mascots are chosen by the Senior class each year. They participate in Senior activities and always add the needed touch of cuteness which only children can create. This year's mascots are: Little Miss Vicki Lynn Shoffner and Master Dickie Cole.

ATOMIC CUT-UPS

We Do Bequeath:

NORTH CAROLINA
Alamance County
Burlington

We, the Senior Class of Burlington High School of above state, city and county, on this sixth day of January, in the year of Our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and fifty, being in vagrant mental state, after four years of exposure in these stately halls of wisdom do solemnly will, bequeath and bestow the following as our Last Will and Testament.

ARTICLE I

To Mr. Linnemann, the arbiter of all participants in acts of violence in said school, we leave a certificate, giving him the authority, if at such time he should have the desire, to preach at least two and not exceeding three sermons a year in chapel.

ARTICLE II

To the entire senior faculty we bequeath the Junior Class, trusting that their gentle brains will not be filled to satiety by modern methods of education as ours have been.

ARTICLE III

To the Junior Class we will our places in chapel, our Senior social prestige, our wonderful examples of character, our magnificent grades, and our continuous desire for more wisdom through—study.

ARTICLE IV

The following Seniors do bequeath as follows:

Bill Yates wills his happiness of heart and gay spirit to Hallie Ragsdale.

Pat Long gives her sweet and affectionate way of winning friends to Pat Gilmore.

Bill Moore wishes to will nothing, but due to circumstances beyond his control he will gladly sell his Winston date book to anyone interested.

Jean Bradley leaves her "bedroom voice" to Sylvia Eaton.

Bob Glenn wills his formula for going steady to Ruth Moody and Don Smith.

Dunnie Carlyle submits her "snowin' " ability to Nancy Davis and Ray Elder.

Hunter Strader and Lora Kinsinger have a few "E's" they wish to give to Bobby Latta and Nancy McPherson.

Jeanette Snyder wills her magnetic personality and wonderful smile to Leon Sartin.

Carolyn Holt has considered the situation from every angle and has decided that she will need all her talents in the future.

Hugh Barrett awards his license to go crazy at will to Bill Kirkman.

Buell Moser in turn wills "The Wheel" to Henry Perry.

Jean Marion wills her school spirit to Arlene Stafford.

Raymond Trollinger bequeaths his book "How To Win Friends and Influence People" to Mickey Clark.

Jewel Beauford and Fred Mathews give their athletic ability to be evenly distributed among the athletes of the Junior Class.

Jack Stone gives his cowboy outfit to Bill Green.

Frankie Strader has improved the "flunkin" formula she received last year and in turn wishes Norma Spikes to have said formula.

Joe Crutchfield reluctantly gives all "True Love" comic books to J.W. Qualls.

Lola Hilliard wills her quiet but pleasing attitude to "Butchie" Hoffman.

Joe Freeman gives his Latin priority to Richard Keziah if said person should have the need for it again next year.

Ann Cobb and Robert Harris leave their ability to get along under any circumstances to Goochie Lane and Betty Cates.

Lewis Blakey leaves his way with the women to Bobby Robertson.

Ann Abercrombie wills her exquisite formula for gaining real experience through modern novels to Ann May and Betty Mitchell.

Bob Ellington has decided he is going to need all his good looks but gives his swell leadership qualities to the incoming Student Body President.

Betsy Patterson leaves her theory of music to the Glee Club.

Jerry Moff gives his golf clubs to Bob Aldridge if and when Bob turns "Pro" overnight as said predecessor.

ARTICLE V

In testimony whereof we do appoint Mr. Lester Ridenhour as sole executor of this, our Last Will and Testament, asking him to see that the said terms are carried out faithfully.

"Who could 'Miss Barker' be? "Are you 'Miss Barker'?" "I can't imagine who she could be." Such questions as these were heard all about B. H. S. the week of Homecoming. Excitement and curiosity concerning the "Miss Barker Contest" were being shown by everyone, for practicaly all of the students and teachers participated in the contest.

It all started with an idea dreamed up by he Barker Staff. With the idea in mind that it would publicize the Barker and also boost Homecoming, the staff set to work and appointed a committee to arrange for the contest.

Bur-Mill's Greatest Investment Is Here In Alamance County

TWENTY-FIVE years ago Burlington Mills began here in Burlington as a small bedspread mill. Since that humble beginning, this Company has grown during the past quarter-century until it is now one of the world's largest producers of rayon fabrics. Its operations have spread to five states and four foreign countries. The list of Bur-Mil textile products now includes women's woven and knit outerwear and underwear fabrics, men's wear fabrics, decorative fabrics, cotton piece goods, yarns, women's and men's hosiery, industrial and transportation fabrics, and ribbons.

Despite this growth and expansion, Burlington Mills is proud to point out that the Burlington area—the birthplace of the Company—still embraces its largest concentration of plants, people and investment. There are 15 Bur-Mil manufacturing plants or service units in Burlington and Alamance County employing over 4,000 people with an annual payroll of over $11,000,000.

Burlington Mills is proud to be a part of the great community of Burlington. It appreciates the fine cooperation and loyal support it has received. It is equally proud of its many employees who join with other good citizens in the civic, educational and religious activities of city and county.

Here in Our City of

BURLINGTON

Let us all work together to make our Community:

A good place in which to live;

A place where honest work brings an honest living;

A place where initiative and progressive ideas bring forth returns;

A place where the City Government serves all its peoples;

A place where we worship and live our religious principles;

A place where we can work and play and enjoy the goodness of living;

A place where our boys and girls will want to establish their homes;

A place worthy of being called "OUR HOME."

The value of the telephone isn't just the calls you make. Sometimes the calls you receive are even more important. You'd miss a lot if the telephone wasn't there.

Just on calls you make, the telephone's a big bargain in convenience, security, success and good times. When you add the calls you receive, it's an even bigger value.
